

HOUSING SITE ACTION URGED IN THIRD WARD

Move to Gain Approval for Housing Site In Crowded Ward

If the application for approval of three additional low cost housing developments urged by the Newark Housing Authority in a recent communication to Washington are accepted a site, estimated to cost $1,795,588, in the densely populated Third Ward may be realized, it was announced last week.

Preliminary plans for the Diamond Park and Branch Brook were approved at the meeting of the authority last week. Negroes are not expected to benefit greatly from the two above projects.

Negroes who suffer the greatest need for improved housing, are expected to benefit from the One and Two Family units valued at $2,770,000; and the South and above four sites have already been awarded Pacific streets sites, $1,413,407. The approvals by the authority are expected by June 1.

The plan for Third Ward site, possibly around Charlton street, was to be made possible if the United States Housing Authority decides to reallocate its Newark funds among the New Jersey municipalities which had up when various towns rejected their proposed housing projects.

In discussing the authority's application to Washington for approvals of the additional units under the present four site program, Charles P. Gillen, chairman, suggested that only two—the Ironbound and one in the Third Ward—be proposed at once. The third is planned for the Orange and Nesbitt section.

ONE OF THE LARGEST SUNDAY SCHOOLS IN THE CITY

over 350 pupils. One of the reasons the church has made such steady progress in nearly three quarters of a century is the training it instills in its youngest membership. Many of the pupils pictured here are members of some of Newark's most outstanding citizens. They are attending class on last Sunday. This group is the pride of the church.

YOUTH FELLED BY GAS FUMES

TRENTON, April 26.—John Little, 18, and his sister, Margaret, 16, were found unconscious in their bedchamber by a relative who visited their home 123 South Street, Sunday. Police were summoned and a ambulance and two radio cars with an inhalator responded to the emergency.

After preliminary first aid treatment, the two were revived they were sent to Lehigh Valley Hospital in the ambulance. After treatment they were permitted to return to their home.

Midnight Chat

With this visit, Mr. Vanderwerf was gravely concerned and puzzled upon receiving a letter dated April (Princeton) 17, 1899 wherein his wife wanted to make arrangements.

The letter in part said: "Dear Charles: I hope that I will not do anything else to hurt you and all I have done is that I just read what I have done to you. I hope some day I will be able to make you happy again. I would like to come back to you but I'm afraid that you will not want me. I hope that I would never be able to straighten them out so I'm writing to ask you to forgive me." Upon conclusion the letter was signed "thank you from your wife" Mrs. Charles Vanderwerf.

Mrs. Caroline A. Whipple, prominent educator, was the principal speaker at the Adult Education Evening School Program at 13th Avenue, Presbyterian Church here Monday evening.

Mrs. Whipple, who was introduced by Mr. Edward F. Holden, State Supervisor of Negro Adult Education in New Jersey, gave a very interesting and informative address on the subject of "The Negro in the Adult Education Program."

Mrs. Whipple is editor of the National Adult Education Bulletin, is an author and an outstanding educator of note.

A response was made to her lecture by Mrs. Anna Mable Robinson, State Supervisor of Negro Adult Education in New Jersey.

Dr. Mabel L. Follett, widow of the historic Old First Church, made the closing remarks, after which she presented to Mrs. Violette Blake, supervising teacher a souvenir for the school which she entitled "Never too Late to Learn."

Mrs. Bernice Maxwell and Mrs. Wynne were the soloists on the program. It is the third of the series of successful Educational and Cultural Programs sponsored by the 13th Avenue Presbyterian Adult Education Evening School Center.

MRS. MARION B. LATHROP

Mrs. Marion Brown Lathrop, local Jersey City girl, is appearing at the Apollo Theatre this week with the only all Negro Ballet group in the world.

The group is known as Eugene Von Grona's Swing Ballet. They made their debut at the Lafayette Theatre in 1938 which attracted the admiration of the then young Broadway. Since that time they have made many appearances in the metropolitan area outstanding of which have been appearances at Town Hall, Carnegie Hall, and in 1939 they were featured in Lew Leslie's Blackbirds of 1939. Unfortunately for the Blackbirds the critics ridiculed and scorned it. The only laurels which were given to the group were given to Lena Horne. "Life Magazine" also featured pictures of this group recently in one of its pictorial sections on Negro life.

Mrs. Lathrop has the distinction of being the prima representative from Jersey with this group. She is the daughter of Mrs. Viole Berger Brown of 251 Forrest Street, Jersey City.

The case has been widely discussed in North Jersey and New York social circles and many prominent persons are expected to call on Dr. Carpenter to hear the "inside story."

Mrs. Carpenter will be represented by Attorney Charles Carpenter, a barrister of eminent counsel; while Attorney Louis E. Saunders will represent Dr. Carpenter.

GREAT LEADER

MT. ZION BAPTIST CHURCH HAS STOOD THE TEST WELL

Rev. Burks Proves A Great Leader

By LEONARD BRAZELL

"HISTORY," one has said, "is the witness of the times, the torch of truth, the life of memory, the teacher of life, the messenger of Antiquity."

Viewing history in the light of the Negro Church, it may be said that the distinctive social, economic and psychological influences at work in each of the five different epochs of the history of the United States affected in various ways the Negro churches of New Jersey that originated at that time, and are still reflected in those of them that have survived.

The first of these epochs was between the years 1750 and 1850. During this period the Negroes in most of the predominantly White churches voluntarily withdrew or were forced out. And likewise the Whites withdrew from churches which were predominantly Negro.

The post-Civil War and Reconstruction period, 1865-1900, gave new life to Negro churches. The Negro churches in New Jersey of this time originated especially from initiative of individual groups, spiritual leaders, and members of other churches. Rev. William Hill of Charlottesville, Va., who was the third pastor of Bethany Baptist Church, built Bethany and organized the Mount Zion Baptist Church of Newark, N. J., April 7, 1878.

Starting with thirty-one members, Rev. Hill worked his efforts by night and day to make the church a soul-saving station for God. A few months later, thirty-six brethren from the Bethany Baptist church joined the Mount Zion Baptist Church by Christian experience. Thus, sixty-seven in all, is the number that comprised the original membership which began sixty years ago.

The building in which they were organized was the "East Kinney Street Hall," located between Broad and Halsey streets. Mr. Amos Preston, who joined Mount Zion in December, 1878 became Superintendent of the Sunday School. Mrs. Julia Sellers is the oldest living member of Mount Zion Baptist Church having joined the church in April, 1878.

August 21, 1885, the Mount Zion Baptist Church purchased from the Sherman Avenue Baptist Church was pastor of Mount Zion Baptist Church.

During the five years stay of Rev. Cox, the old church was torn down and a more modern and spacious church was erected upon the same ground.

This building was erected at a cost of $4,000. Then on August 19, 1903 Rev. C. W. Moore was called December 3, 1903, and served as pastor only four months and seven days, June 29, 1904 he tendered his resignation.

On December 28, 1904, after being without a pastor for about nine months, the church called to pastorate the late Rev. J. R. Brown, who took charge March 4, 1905.

Rev. Brown found a splendid little church whose seating capacity was twenty-four persons. Being greatly encumbered with a debt of six thousand eight hundred dollars and sixty-nine cents the little crowd of faithful workers had somewhat turned away from the church. Being a powerful speaker a man of God, Rev. Brown began to create wide attention, and the membership increased by leaps and bounds until within two years, the interest in our beloved church had grown to three hundred seventy-nine dollars and sixty-nine cents of the principal debt was paid.

The Negroes in Newark as early as 1908 began to realize the importance of their place in Negro life, and today there is one church for every 1,374 persons in total population, but one for every 661 persons of the Negro. Brothers, agents and sand-binders and Pollard Company, hardware; J. J. Hoenken, painter; Matwan New Jersey Brick Company, bricks; and secretary, hand-wreaths from Patrick Keeley, house-wreaths. These bricks were used for backing and thousands of them were cleaned by the young girls of the church.

The women sieved sand, while the girls wheeled it into the basement. The men gave their money and paid for extra help in the construction of the church. Many thousands of bricks were paid for by individuals and a list of two hundred and four names of these contributors to the work will not hang in the vestibule of the church.

At the close of the addresses and remarks by many others present, the pastor, visiting ministers, trustees, members and friends of the church moved to the outside where the cornerstone was ready to be laid.

THE HISTORY of Mount Zion Baptist church from 1918 to 1928 falls within the Historical epoch (1918-1928) characterized by a marked Migration Movement of Negroes in the United States. This period in which the mobility of the Negro population is so great, defining itself directly reflected in the growth in membership of the churches in New Jersey.

A concise picture of the relationship of the Negro church to the population is shown in an analysis made of sixty-nine churches of ten denominations, having an aggregate membership of 38,000 persons. During this period (1918-1928), the average membership increased from 284 to 432 or 62 per cent. During this period the Mount Zion maintained a membership of over one thousand persons, and on November 13, 1927 the date of our great anniversary the aggregate of the church members increased to 1,000. This increase in membership was shown by the large amount of money raised on that day.

During this period Sun-day school and the leadership of Mr. W. M. Epps, had a membership of over 200. The Senior B.Y.P.U., under the able leadership of Mr. Brown, Mr. H. Eppes was the most outstanding in the city, and the Junior B.Y.P.U., under the leadership of Miss S. A. Brown, was largely attended by the members of the church.

Mount Zion Baptist church had become a social center and Rev. J. R. Brown, our ambitious and energetic leader, sought to bring a-

The choir sang beautifully as usual and Mr. Wilkes, organist,

"Sometimes I feel like a motherless child" with the understanding had a beautiful voice which knew no bounds in its ability to move

NEW JERSEY HERALD NEWS

Sally's Chatterings

By SALLY LEWIS

EARLY HOSPITALITY has well nigh overwhelmed us what with Easter being same as Xmas down here, with greetings and gifts galore, we can't write a column, hence we send you our "duty" letter.

Wandered over SHAW UNIVERSITY CAMPUS (which is just a stone's throw from our aunt's home), learned of the absence of MUTH LIND, champion dancer of the WORLD JAMES DEAN, and am now in touch with MUTH, who will be back and expects to remain in Newark where the doctor would meet her and drive on to Newark.

LYDIA LEVISTER DUBUSETTE (remember she spent some time in Asbury last summer's back), had us in for bridge and one of those great southern dinners. She sent word to all her friends to see the world's Fair coupled with her strenuous social Service work hindered her from taking in the CHIRE AMIES SUPPER DANCE, but she'll be seeing us later.

FANNIE OKELLEY PEACE, our aunt, and trustee of St. Paul's A. M. E. Church, outstanding citizen and civic worker showed us a letter written by her beloved mother some 35 years ago, and gave us a cute picture of her which is almost a replica of ourselves. We trekked out to the cemetery and communed with the spirits of our sainted mothers.

"WING OVER JORDAN" the group that has captivated listeners via radio appeared in person at the RALEIGH AUDITORIUM (a most spacious and gorgeous place). We were sorely disappointed and pray that television will remain unperfected for some time. One never realizes the actuality of what one sees. After the audience ran rampant with all the end of the second group of songs, the audience waited patiently ten minutes for their re-appearance, only to find they had literally "sneaked out," boarded their bus and left. Our half of a hard earned dollar "gone with the wind." From now on we pledge to listen via radio to that particular group (if at all).

LENORE SMITH (the girl who was the victim of DR. MYRA SMITH (to whom she sends hello) took us to a Fashion Parade, which proved the ladies of Raleigh know how to wear the glad rags.

Visited the FARMERS & MECHANICS BANK (enterprising col-ored establishment at which our own Uncle Billie-his as stenog), and ran into our ATTORNEY ROGER OKELLEY, who has served that Bank as attorney for 15 years.

Hastened to WASHINGTON, D. C., bringing our aunt FANNIE with us where she will remain until the end of the month at which time we will return to Newark. Visited our dear old friend JOHN G. PEACE, his sister ESTHER JEAN and in the phraseology of cousin John "he will branch-out." As one of the fortunate 75,000 we stood at the foot of the LINCOLN MEMORIAL in the Capitol City on EASTERN SUNDAF, listened with awe and rapture, while MR. CALVIN COOPERSON, 44, former editor of the "Daily Worker" sang in the sky as a canopy of carolian blue, and Old Sol beaming down "poured" out her heart in song, breaking one more link in the chain which binds our Race to slavery of HATRED, MALICE, SEGREGATION, JIM-CROWISM in this great land of the free (7).

Visited our dear old call handsome cousin JIMMIE HACKNEY (soy at Howard University) talking about the city in a big way, meeting folks, dining and frolicking. With our cousin MINNIE HACKNEY (Jimmie's mom) sending best love to her sister BLANCHE HOGANS of Paterson; to DR. MYRA SMITH of Vicksburg, Miss., Mrs. MORSE's wife of Dr. Morse, we tore our selves away back to the daily grind.

OH WELL CAN'T JUST SIT AND WAIT FOR A GUY WITH FILTHY LUCRE, we contemplate saving our own, and some day we can live off the fat of the land and when the mood strikes can wander off to foreign parts. Until then we are remembering our ten day vacation as the GRANDEST.

Elite Frolic With Bachelor - Benedict

All-Around

By LILLIAN B. HUFF

O...O... What A Night

The Bachelor Benedict's really came on . . . My, the gowns were beautiful . . . Evelyn Brock of Westfield wore a red affair that complimented her brown skin . . . Billie Mickey was walking around with hubby in a black skirt and roman top blouse . . . Dainty Bessie Abrams was in the new shirtwaist evening gown of white organdy blouse with black skirt . . . Lucille Andrews looked very well in a black taffeta . . . Marcia Williams a printed gown graciously seeing that her guests were seated . . . Grace Fenderson in a beige, fox trotting with her hubby . . . Nellie Carr dresses in that southern style of correctness even down to her white gloves . . . Ruth Dr. Addison Brown in a brocade blue satin enjoying herself very much . . . Dr. Ernest Wetmore acting as if he missed his wife, who is in Florida visiting . . . Ethel Howe in navy and white . . . Archie White dancing with Carolyn Robinson of Belleville and liking it . . . Louis Pitts was the well dressed man in his tails . . . Quite a few men were in formal dress and I for one admired it . . .

Dorothy Holmes, always so sweet and charming, wore a girlish lace . . . Kirk Marrow, our auto detective, looking on very quietly . . . Mrs. James Churchman unassuming in a grey chiffon on the arm of her mortician hubby . . . John Brown, usually a tower of strength, was slightly shaky Friday at the turn of events . . . The dance was one affair that featured marital bliss for there were any number of wedded couples out and really enjoying being there together . . .

Sunrise Meal In the Wiley's Playroom:

Leaving the dance, about twenty folks informally dropped in on the Wileys . . . And did we have fun . . . Such exhibition of dancing should have been saved for the Museum of Art . . . If that Richmond school marimba teaches like she can swing, she's o.k. . . Lelia stepped out of her formal gown and put on a house coat of mexican colors and went to work as the perfect hostess . . . Dr. Wiley behind the bar served every known concoction to drinkers . . . In the party were Dr. and Mrs. Dwight Holmes . . . The Percy Conrads . . . The Everett Richardsons . . . The Arthur Jordans . . . The Charles Smiths . . . Dewey Ackis who was making quite a good job of swinging the ladies around . . . Marjorie Moore in an old fashion outfit . . . Lucy B. Harrington giving her version of the latest steps . . . living happily in the present . . . Jack Dabney adding his bit to a grand party . . . Charles Brown . . . Edward Wheeler . . . Carlton Norris . . . Vivian Bailey . . . Imo Carter . . . and Arthur Potter . . .

Sunday Was a "Boofiful" Day:

With the sun shining brightly on both sides of the street it was a pleasure to be just living . . . As we ambled along High Street to the Sojourner Truth Branch of the YWCA to have breakfast the air was a spring tonic . . . Everyone was there or had been there . . . the bacon and eggs were right good with my favorite dish of grits thrown in . . . Was fortunate enough to eat with Mrs. and Mrs. Randolph . . . Heard all about the Charlotte Wallace Murray concert . . . the tickets are selling like hot cakes . . . Plenty folks are planning to attend in formal wear because of the Omega Dance the same night . . . Mrs. Estelle Morris was debating whether or not she would pay for daughter Mildred's ticket . . . Tommy Bell and Judy Baxter won't be here for the AKA . . . they are leaving Friday night for the Penn Relays . . . We take our Easter bonnets off to Mary E. Woods—since her arrival the YWCA was clicking . . .

This is a Funny Business:

You never know where your next call will be . . . found out Sunday afternoon that writing is much easier than talking to a crowd of folks . . . George E. Cannon Lodge of the Elks held Memorial Service at Bethel A.M.E. Church, Vaux Hall . . . appreciate the honor of their asking me to speak . . . There is only one idea I have in mind nowadays, for our women to get prepared so they can omit the menial service . . . And if your marriage goes on the rocks you will be in the position to support yourself . . . We sometimes feel our ministers dwell too much in the past and not enough on the importance of schooling . . . The Lord helps those who help themselves and we must learn to depend on ourselves . . .

The Women Served Tea:

Sunday afternoon at the Oakwood Avenue Branch YWCA . . . Nic gathering . . . the members themselves were indeed chic . . . Evelyn Timmons was a reincarnated "Gibson Girl" . . . Juanita Mulford was wearing a navy blue sheer with a corn colored hat . . . She has a lovely sparkler on the right digit . . . so I guess it will take place any day now . . . Or has it? . . . Edythe Wiley was a busting around trying to see that every one was served . . . Got there too late to hear Rev. J. Vance McIver's speech . . . Grace Jordan said it was most enjoyable . . . His topic ran along these lines . . . "WHY ARE YOU HERE?" . . . WHAT ARE YOU DOING?" . . . wondered if he is as inquisitive as lot of us to where we are going in this mad rush to accomplish . . .

More Noisy Notes:

They say the Charley Francises are tickled pink at the prospect of a nursery tenant . . . Out Summit way they are saying at long last Alice Cross and Charlie Cox will finally be wed after years and years of courtship . . . The University Four gang over the radio Sunday night . . . just a wee bit nervous as it was their first airwave attempt . . . The Wilbert Johnsons of Summit have welcomed their third boy to the family budget . . . Can it be that the lovely Elyse B. May is planning on making hubby a papa . . . Can it be that I should mind my business? . . . See you folks Friday night at the AKA formal . . .
